This tutorial will help you get started with creating your own fonts. Open a program like Adobe InDesign or Illustrator and type the alphabet into some bookmarks. I used to lose many hours trawling through lists of sources, desperately trying to find the right one, but with nothing really hitting the spot. There is no right or wrong at this stage, so just play.3 Vaguely SketchYou should now be confident enough to use a concept to help tie all your sketches together. A slab serif has thick, block-like serifs. However, we have to establish some rules. In our example, this is to start drawing your outlines with a pen.16 Add EffectsWith the outlines ready, fill them in. A A try to be exact: have an idea of the design and spacing.8 Introduce consistencyNext, make some small changes to some of the characters to introduce consistency. A Here, we are A creating the main typography for a fictional tattoo studio called AeAëAcPound for FleshAAëA For example, the o and n need to be wider than d, u and s. Check why you like them, and what consistencies and inconsistencies are apparent.Then open your sketch and start experimenting freely with different fonts. Eventually, I realized it might be a good idea if I started reaching for my pen and pad to design my own solutions instead of getting bogged down in those nightmare lists of indecisiveness.A Familiarizing yourself with the intricacies of the characters, and trying to capture the humor You want to transmit with typography is a set of practical skills. iA e à é ê ëT is then for the space the F and Ro also in side. iA Ahave marked more consistencies to consider, also ©m.13 Describe a curveThe letter will be the most complicated. Ao Remember that you can't just replace the paper if you need to eat again because you don't think you can do better.15 Paint upWhen you don'tAhave finished the top sheet, itA A Take two loose sheets of tracking paper and line them up on top of each other.
